New learning spaces at NGA

We are excited to announce that in mid-2019 NGA will launch a new creative learning centre – an interactive space for facilitating the exploration and making of art in all its forms. Adjacent to this there will be a dedicated gallery with rotating exhibitions to inspire the thousands of young people who visit each year.

The National Gallery of Australia’s learning programs are generously supported by the Timothy Fairfax AC Fund for Education.

---

Professional learning for teachers

Term 1 – Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Art
Term 2 – Asian Art
Term 3 – Making and Responding
Term 4 – Australian Art

Free. Bookings essential.
nga.gov.au/profdev

National Visual Arts Education Conference
21 to 23 January 2019
Access recordings of talks and papers.
www.nga.gov.au/nvaec

---

Resources

Find hundreds of online resources about art and artists from Australia and across the world. Head to the ‘Resources’ tab at nga.gov.au/education to discover more.

---

Book with us

For full program and booking information visit
nga.gov.au/education

groupbookings@nga.gov.au
(02) 6240 6519

Please book at least four weeks in advance.

The NGA is committed to inclusion. Please let us know if students with special needs so we can tailor your program accordingly.

---

Resources

Find hundreds of online resources about art and artists from Australia and across the world.

Head to the ‘Resources’ tab at nga.gov.au/education to discover more.

---

Covers

Students engaging with Urban Art Projects Fishtrap 2010

Students engaging with Infinite conversations, 2018

Students engaging with Yayoi Kusama SPIRITS OF THE PUMPKINS DESCENDED INTO THE HEAVENS 2017 (installation view) Purchased 2018 with the assistance of Andrew and Hiroko Gwinnett, © Yayoi Kusama
Lichtenstein to Warhol: The Kenneth Tyler Collection
7 September 2019–February 2020
After World War II, Kenneth Tyler was influential in moving printmaking from a minor artform to a leading visual practice. See iconic works by artists including Andy Warhol, Roy Lichtenstein and Helen Frankenthaler.

Monet: Impression Sunrise
7 June–18 August 2019
An exquisite survey of Impressionism including Impression, soleil levant by Claude Monet, the painting from which the Impressionist movement takes its name.

Education Programs
The NGA offers rich learning experiences for preschool through to tertiary students to engage with the national art collection. All of our programs are free for Australian students and teachers.

What’s in a nation? Civics and citizenship focus tour
Learn about diverse expressions of national identity. Explore the story of Australia through the eyes of artists, from colonial through to contemporary times, and including the rich and diverse perspectives of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander artists.

Art discovery
Art discovery tours: Discover our collection. Look, talk and respond. 1 hour
Focus tours: A program tailored to a topic of your choice. See our suggestions online. 1 hour
Special exhibition programs: Experience our major shows with a guide or educator. 1 hour
Art and play programs: Programs for preschool and K-2 children with activities. 45 mins

Get hands-on
Drawing tours: Look at and discuss works of art then draw in response. 1.5 hours
Digital draw and explore: Use iPad drawing to creatively respond to works of art in the collection. 1.5 hours
See and create: Spend one hour viewing works in the collection to inspire one hour of creative art making with a broad range of materials. 2 hours

Exhibitions Program 2019
Booked groups of Australian students and their teachers enter our ticketed exhibitions free, including a program led by our trained guides and educators.

Love and Desire: Pre-Raphaelite Masterpieces from the Tate
16 December 2018–28 April 2019
Enter a world of Love & Desire as the Tate lends exclusive masterpieces from its unsurpassed collection of Pre-Raphaelite paintings.

Sally Smart
until 27 May 2019
Sally Smart takes over NGA Play to bring to life the Ballet Russes in an interactive space of collage, colour and dance, bridging visual art and performance. NGA Play is made possible with the support of Tim Fairfax in honour of Betty Churcher.

Contemporary Worlds: Indonesia
21 June–27 October 2019
For a taste of contemporary culture from one of Australia’s nearest neighbours, encounter the work of 20 Indonesian artists, including Melati Suryodarmo, Fx Harsono and Eko Nugroho.

Monet: Impression Sunrise
7 June–18 August 2019
An exquisite survey of Impressionism including Impression, soleil levant by Claude Monet, the painting from which the Impressionist movement takes its name.

Travelling Exhibitions
Sidney Nolan’s iconic Ned Kelly Series, Defying Empire: The National Indigenous Art Triennial, David Hockney: Prints and Art Deco are just a few of the exhibitions travelling across Australia in 2019. Check our website for dates and venues. They could be coming to a gallery near you!