SAFETY GUIDELINES:

Whether attending Art IRL online or onsite, you must not engage in dangerous, abusive or inappropriate behaviour, illegal acts or infringe the rights of any other person. If you fail to comply, you may be asked to leave or you may be removed from the premises.

Registration to attend is mandatory.

ATTENDING ONSITE:

To ensure Art IRL National Youth Week is a safe and inclusive event, all persons attending are asked to:

- be responsible and aware of the safety of themselves and others.
- act with respect and kindness – the National Gallery of Australia reserves the right to remove any participant who does not behave in a respectful or safe manner, determined with the discretion of staff and facilitators

To help us protect your National Collection, displays and exhibitions from damage, we ask everyone to observe the following conditions of entry to the Gallery:

- Items where any one side is longer than 30cm, such as bags, backpacks, umbrellas, tripods and monopods are not permitted in the gallery spaces and must be cloaked. Free self-service cloaking is available in the Art Store

- Food and drinks are not permitted in any exhibition area
- Refreshments are only to be consumed in the designated areas only
- All of the National Gallery's buildings and immediate surrounds are smoke-free
- Touching works of art is not permitted
- Trained, registered and visibly identifiable guide, hearing and other assistance dogs are welcome to visit the Gallery when accompanied by their handler
- Entry to Art IRL is only via the main entrance
- Present your ticket at the main entrance
- Wear the bracelet provided at all times
- Look after your mates
- Follow our team's instructions - we are here to help keep you and the art safe
- Visitors with access requirements are able to hire mobility equipment, including wheelchairs and scooters, for free from the Concierge desk (subject to availability)

ATTENDING ONLINE:

Online attendees must also:

- keep camera turned off and microphone muted until you are asked to share.
- use only first names when logging into Zoom
- not photograph or record the session in anyway
- Act with respect and kindness – the National Gallery of Australia reserves the right to remove any participant who does not behave in a respectful or safe manner, determined with the discretion of staff and facilitators

COVID-19 SAFETY MEASURES

To ensure the health and well-being of all our Art IRL participants and staff we have put in place additional safety measures:

- Sanitiser stations throughout the Gallery
- Additional cleaning of the Gallery including high-traffic areas and high-touch items
- Mobility equipment sanitised after each use

Help us protect the community by adopting the following safety measures when participating at Art IRL

- Wash your hands frequently with soap and water, or use an alcohol-based hand rub
- When coughing and sneezing cover mouth and nose with flexed elbow or tissue
- Comply with lift capacity restrictions

If you do not feel well, please do not attend Art IRL

We thank you for your assistance in keeping our community safe.
