

Corporate Membership
Ceremony, 26 March - 31 July 2022

The National Indigenous Art Triennial is Australia's first large scale recurring exhibition dedicated to contemporary Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander art and artists.

Ceremony brings together more than 35 First Nations artists to demonstrate the central role of art and artists in connecting community, culture, and Country through performance, moving image, painting, photography, and sculpture.

Join us as a National Indigenous Art Triennial: Ceremony Corporate Member and contribute to the cultural enrichment of your community. Members enjoy tailored packages to host intimate events within the Gallery.

EXCLUSIVE HOSPITALITY EXPERIENCE

Opportunity to host one (1) exclusive after-hours cocktail function between Monday to Thursday weekdays* during the National Indigenous Art Triennial: Ceremony Exhibition. Includes tickets, guided exhibition viewing, curatorial introduction, and event in Gandel Hall, for up to 100 guests between 6 – 8pm.

Includes: tickets, venue hire, security, cleaning, and parking

Excludes: food, beverage, optional theming, and gifting costs

*Bookings not available Fridays, Saturdays, or Sundays and subject to availability

NETWORKING & RECOGNITION BENEFITS

- Two (2) double invites to the National Indigenous Art Triennial: Ceremony Exhibition Preview
- Acknowledgement as a Corporate Member on National Gallery website and annual report
- Two (2) annual National Gallery Memberships
- Discount on National Indigenous Art Triennial: Ceremony merchandise for client gifting

Hayley Millar Baker, Gunditjmara and Djabwurrung peoples, Nyctinasty (still), 2021, commissioned by the National Gallery of Australia, Kamberri/Canberra for the 4th National Indigenous Art Triennial: Ceremony with the support of Kerry Gardner AM and Andrew Myer AM, and the Australian Government through the Australia Council for the Arts, its arts funding and advisory body, image courtesy the artist and Vivien Anderson Gallery © the artist